Leading Austin Immigration Law Firm Expands Commercial Texas Helps Firm Double Office Space

Austin, Texas, February 29, 2008 –Tindall & Foster, one of the region’s largest law firms specializing in U.S. immigration law and worldwide immigration, is doubling its space at 100 Congress in downtown Austin. The firm has expanded to accommodate the addition of new attorneys and staff.

“With a wave of immigration enforcement announced by the Department of Homeland Security, we are one of the few law firms that can analyze and mitigate immigration exposure proactively and react to surprise raids,” said Robert Loughran, Managing Shareholder, Tindall & Foster. “We’ve added several attorneys and staff members to our team in recent months and anticipate solid growth in 2008.”

Tindall & Foster has added 6,000 square feet of space to the existing 10,700 square feet in the Central Business District. Additionally, the firm is subleasing approximately 3,000 square feet and has an option for another 7,000 square feet. In the past 12 months the firm has added six attorneys and 13 legal assistants, taking its total to 45 immigration professionals locally. Tindall & Foster expects to add an additional 20 attorneys and new staff members in 2008.

Russell Young of Commercial Texas LLC, a leading Central Texas commercial real estate services firm, represented Tindall & Foster in the expansion; CB Richard Ellis represented the landlord, MetLife.

“Commercial Texas, and Russell Young, assisted us in creating an expansion strategy that fit our business needs,” continued Loughran. “He’s been a strong resource for many years and we appreciate his vision and analysis; he understands our goals and always finds the best real estate solution.”

About Tindall & Foster
